CREEK ADVOCATES HOST GATHERING, OFFER HONORS CREEK STEWARDS

SAN JOSE, CA, OCTOBER 10, 2011: The Santa Clara County Creeks Coalition will host its fifth annual Creeks and Watershed Conference on Saturday November 5, 2011 LinkedIn, located at 2025 Stierlin Court, Bldg 3, in the City of Mountain View. Doors open at 8 a.m. This year's conference focuses on healthy creeks and a vibrant Bay. Speakers include 22nd District Assemblywoman and candidate for State Senate, Sally Lieber and Executive Producer of the PBS television series Saving the Bay, Ron Blatman. This year's Creek Advocate of the Year award will go to Florence & Phillip LaRaviere for their tireless efforts toward improving habitat for people and wildlife alike. The Watershed Stewardship Award will go to David Lane. With new sponsors Google and LinkedIn, plus the support of the Santa Clara Valley Water District and the Cities of San Jose and Sunnyvale to name a few, attendance this year is expected to reach up to 300 people.

The event is free with request of a $10 donation to help offset costs. There will be a light continental style breakfast served from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. A free box lunch is available for those who pre-register. Speakers begin at 9:00 a.m. The complete conference agenda and online registration forms are available at <http://www.sccreeks.org/index.php/events.html>
